Barney Dreyfuss Sees His Pirates Perform the "Comedy of Errors" --- Yanks and Robins Drop Double Headers

GIANTS WIN IN GAME OF ERRORS

Frenzied Support Counteracts Fine Pitching by Grimes and Sallee.

Burleigh Grimes, Pirate pitcher, was on the Polo Grounds yester-No pitcher who has called at the Harlem pasture this season fought so hard to overcome a ledestone of errors which hung around his neck, and buning after inning threatened to pull For nine innings Burleigh kept his team in the fight, but in the fanth two more Buccaneer misplays dragged him into the sea of defeat. But such is life if one is pitching for the Firates. The Glants made it a clean sweep for the week by winning the aturday matinee in the tenth inning by A score of 4 to 3.

Harry Sallee, the Higginsport Sheriff, who has suddenly become a most valuable asset to the Glant flinging corps, also pitched very nifty ball, and his support was none too good either. The Glants did quite a little error making themselves, though the Pirates failed to make the error contest close. They out-erred the Giants two to one, leading in boots, with eight against four for the Manhattan Islanders.

There was only one thing which kept e fact that the Pirates scattered their rors. One cach came in the first, cond, third and fourth innings. They lipped by the fifth without a mistake but cropped up with another in the seventh was clean, but the extent was clean, but the exth Bucco foosle was stuck in the score in the eighth.

The ninth was the only inning in which the Giants went out three in a pow, but the Pirates made it up by chustering two for the grand finale in the tenth, is it any wonder that Barney Dreyfuss almost had to ask for smelling salts? Harney watched his eror makers from a field box, and none can say he enjoyed himself.
""It was a flabby, wishywashy sort of game, with hardly a redeeming trait couside of the pitching. Burns made one crackerjack catch on Carey, rob-bing that player of a triple, but in tenth he made a square must of puniest kind of a fly. Carey made grand play in the fourth, when he centre to a single, but in the second, when he had an easy throw to the Biate, he throw wide of the mark, and his peg bounced over Schmidt's top-

Schmidt, by the way, was the most flagrant offender behind Grimes, though he waited until the tenth inning to do his bit toward swelling the Pittsburg fror column.

In the tenth Schmidt made a wild brow putting the Zimm on third, and then if that wasn't enough, he made a muff at the plate, letting Bronx Heinrich
